

Style in the City

Victoria Myers ACII, Deputy President of the Insurance Institute of Manchester is delighted to announce that our Annual Style in the City event will take place on Friday 21st June 2019 at the Midland Hotel, Manchester.

Join us for a My Fair Lady themed packed day event in support of Barnardo's, where we will be hosting a fashion event showcasing outfits both old and new which are available for purchase from their charity shops. In support of the theme we also invite guests to wear one item purchased from a charity shop or online here from Barnardo's.

Dress code: Dress to impress

Timings: Arrival and reception drinks from 11.00am; guests seated for 11.45am start, followed by lunch at 12:00pm, fashion and entertainment until 16.00pm.

Afterparty: Yes, there is! We will be moving on to Revolucion de Cuba, just down the road at 11 Peter Street, who are offering 2 for 1 on cocktails from 4pm-7pm!

Gold Package

- 10 x tickets to the event
- Exclusive table situated next to the catwalk
- Reception welcome drink
- Three course sit down meal with sorbet starter and coffee for each guest
- Drinks package provided on the table; choice of one of the following:
 - Gin– 1 x 70cl Bottle & 15 Fever Tree tonics.
 - Vodka– 1 x 70cl bottles & 15 tonics
- Prosecco – 6 x Bottles of Prosecco plus 1 bottle of still & 1 bottle of sparkling water
- Exclusive Sponsorship Raffle prize – purchased on your behalf to the value of £100
- Brand building – opportunity to place your company pens on each table for guests to take home
- Space for displays – display a banner within the venue
- Model opportunity – for a member of staff to be an Industry model and feature in the show. This lucky person will experience the events backstage preparations and show their skills on the runway. Please note it will be necessary for the staff member to attend rehearsals, usually during a week day(s) afternoon in Manchester city centre.

Price: £1250

CONTACT: