

MATT BREWIS

Director of Insurance
FCA

---

Matt was appointed Director of Insurance in January 2020 following three and a half years as the CEO's Chief of Staff. In his role, Matt has been responsible for the FCA's Supreme Court case to clarify Business Interruption policy wordings during the pandemic; the implementation of the reform of pricing in home and motor insurance; and the FCA's report into multi-occupancy building insurance. Prior to that, Matt worked at the Bank of England for 15 years.